NETWORK USE AT MDM

Take note that MDM network access is protected by a fire wall. Furthermore, all network searches/access are monitored and violations in regards to attempted access to questionable sites are recorded and reported. Please use common sense when using the network at MDM and furthermore, make sure any machine brought to the Observatory that will be connected to the network is clean of anything that may automatically attempt to establish contact with questionable sites. Fumigation is your friend!